5–6	Bead Weavers Bead Weavers will learn about the origins of bead working and how they have been used throughout time. Campers will work with repurposing jewelry as well as crafting their own beads from Oklahoma red clay using them to adorn a variety of projects. Artist: Kindra Lockman	Behind the Scenes Campers will explore the technical workings of theater through make-up, costume design, and prop making. All these new skills will be used to create a character to showcase in a performance on the last day of camp. Artist: Bailey Huerta	Painting with the Sun Use the power of the sun and a little science to create beautiful prints called cyanotypes. Spend the week in the gardens foraging for natural materials, creating, and altering cyanotypes into beautiful works of art! Artist: Rachel Rector	Fairies and Gnomes In this creative world-building workshop, campers will explore the Philbrook Gardens, imagine and map a Philbrook Fairy World, and then bring it to life. On Friday, campers will be the tour guide as they lead their families through cities and towns using a map of their own creation. Artist: Lauren 'Rainbow' Lunsford	Creative Costuming Build a creative costume from head-to-toe using unexpected materials including ribbon, yarn, cardboard, paint, and more. Celebrate on Friday with a parade and fashion show in the gardens. Artist: Katy Bruce	Dreaming in Blue This camp explores slow art methods that produce the color blue: cloud studies, painting, cyanotypes and looking for examples of "Blue Periods" in artists' works are just a few examples. On the last day of the session campers will showcase and discuss the process of their work. Artist: Amber Marie Deen	I Like to Move It, Move It! Creative expression is the ability to use our minds and imaginations to create something that represents ourselves. Campers will get moving and tell stories through dance, acting, and hands-on artmaking as they explore all the ways they can express themselves. Artist: Amber Marie Deen	Here Comes the Sun The center of our solar system and our closest star, the Sun is so much more than a light bulb in the sky. Campers will create art, conduct solar science experiments, and cook their own food, all while learning about the power and importance of this vital star. Artist: Katy Bruce
7–9	Walk on the Wild Side Explore the great outdoors at Camp Philbrook. Form a deeper connection to nature in the Philbrook Gardens and create unique and beautiful artwork from found natural materials. In addition to artmaking, campers will also design their own nature journals documenting what we see, feel, touch, and smell. Artist: Liz Dueck	Upcycled Couture Young fashionistas will reuse and re-purpose textiles from t-shirts, to jeans, and beyond. Campers will develop a sense of pride and appreciation for their resources as they give new life to things that are otherwise destined for the landfill. We'll "C.A.P." off our week with a fashion show on the last day of camp. Artist: Kieran 'C.A.P.' Crutison	Kinetic Camp Get Moving! Campers will explore themes of outer-space, physics, art, nature, technology, and imagination. We'll examine the work of Alexander Calder and other artists who have created innovative mobiles and create our own kinetic art using variety of interesting and unusual materials. Artist: Beth Henley	Fuzzy Felted Fun Experience the sensory and joy of indigo dyeing and felting wool to create individual outdoor fiber art installations. Campers will collect natural materials from Philbrook's gardens and incorporate their foraged findings into a variety of projects. Artist: Taylor Painter-Wolfe	Bead Weavers Bead Weavers will learn about the origins of bead working and how they have been used throughout time. Campers will work with repurposing jewelry as well as crafting their own beads from Oklahoma red clay using them to adorn a variety of projects. Artist: Kindra Lockman	Three is the Magic Number The future is fractal. Campers will spend the week exploring all the things a triangle can be. By searching Philbrook grounds, galleries, and the structure itself campers will take inspiration from their observations and collaborate to build 2-D and 3-D works of art large and small. Artists: Jamie Pierson	Amazing Glaze Get to know the art of ceramics! Campers will learn techniques of attaching clay, slab building, and glazing by creating sculptures inspired by our beautiful gardens and galleries. Artist: Sarah Rucker	Out of the Blue This camp explores slow art methods that produce the color blue: cloud studies, painting, cyanotypes and looking for examples of "Blue Periods" in artists' works are just a few examples. On the last day of the session campers will showcase and discuss the process of their work. Artist: Amber Marie Deen
9–11	Build-a-Book Build a book from start to finish in this imaginative storytelling workshop. Campers will create their own book and use the galleries and gardens as inspiration for imaginative storytelling and illustration, then end the week with a reading for friends and family. Artist: Shannon Barry	Big Bold Portraits Campers will work with charcoal, collage, and pastels to create vibrant portraits of their favorite people in combination with lush landscapes nodding to the style of Kehinde Wiley as inspiration. These young artists will explore the gardens and galleries to grow their ideas. Artist: Rusty Roberts	Fuzzy Felted Fun Experience the sensory and joy of indigo dyeing and felting wool to create individual outdoor fiber art installations. Campers will collect natural materials from Philbrook's gardens and incorporate their foraged findings into a variety of projects. Artist: Taylor Painter-Wolfe	Camp Mix-a-Lot Explore art through different mediums and make something entirely new! This mixed media camp invites young artists to experiment with different mediums, learn the history of mixed media, and gain confidence in creating art out of anything! Artist: Praise Davidson	Philbrook Planeteers What happens when artists join forces with nature and sustainability? They transform into Philbrook Planeteers! From upcycled artmaking to building backyard habitats, campers will discover how fun it can be to use their creativity for good. Artist: Cheyenne Butcher	Sound Lab Art and sound come together in this fun workshop. From creating sound paintings, to making music with plants, campers will look and listen closely to the world around them as they explore the myriad of ways art, sound, and nature work together. Artist: Mark Kuykendall	BIG Art, BIG Ideas Come explore and create large-format artwork. Campers will gain insight about the principles and elements of good design, then collaborate to visually create unique stories on a grand scale. Artist: Aunj Braggs	City Dwellers Build the city of your dreams in this creative camp! Campers will develop a concept for a city and then execute it using city planning and urban design principles. Using basic blocks and simple shapes, all campers will work together to lay out the basic elements of their community. Artist: Jamie Pierson
