FACILITY RENTAL CONTRACT

The Philbrook Museum of Art, Inc. (Philbrook) has established this Facility Rental Contract to set out the terms and conditions for use of the premises of Philbrook (Museum) for an event which is not sponsored by Philbrook (Event). This Contract sets out policies which pertain to the use of the Museum for an Event and constitutes the Event Host’s (Host) agreement to abide by such policies in hosting the Event.

Philbrook is a not-for-profit fine arts museum with a mission to serve the community. The following policies have been established to preserve the Museum, its contents, grounds and gardens, and to assure Philbrook's continuing accreditation by The American Alliance of Museums.

Philbrook reserves the right to change or amend Facility Rental Rules and Regulations for any reason at any time, without advance notice, including, but not limited to, procedures regarding life, safety codes, insurance requirements, building codes, art lender requirements, or other legal issues. In the event of changes or amendments to this Event Policy, Philbrook will endeavor to notify you of any material changes at the earliest reasonable date.

Philbrook’s Significance and Commitment to Preserve this Unique Landmark

Thank you for holding your Event at Philbrook Museum of Art. We preserve Philbrook to engage our community in learning through the arts, history, and the environment. Philbrook is an historic building filled with irreplaceable art objects; and unlike most other venues, its walls, its floors, and its doors are all historic, one-of-a-kind objects or specialized finishes. In agreeing to share Philbrook with you and your guests for a special evening, we ask that you acknowledge the historic importance of Philbrook and commit to doing everything in your power to support our mission to preserve Philbrook during your event. Thank you!

I understand Philbrook’s historic significance and commit to supporting the preservation of this unique landmark.

2. All additional third-party costs and vendor fees will be added to the outstanding balance.
3. Host must pay the outstanding balance for the Event at least 30 days prior to the event start date. Failure to make all required payments 30 days prior to the Event will result in cancellation of Event and forfeiture of all monies, in the sole discretion of Philbrook.
4. Cancellations made for any reason other than Force Majeure as described below, will result in the forfeiture of the non-refundable deposit. For cancellations made within 30 days of the Event start date, for any reason other than Force Majeure as describe below, Host is financially responsible for total rental fee.
5. Any cancellation of Event must be made in writing to the Special Events Manager.
6. Force Majeure: "Force majeure" means any unforeseeable circumstance which is beyond the control of Museum or Host, or any unavoidable event, even if foreseeable, because of which either Party is unable to conduct Event under this Facility Rental Contract. Such circumstances include, but are not limited to, any natural disaster, act by a public enemy, fire, flood, accident, war, riot, pandemic, insurgence, or any other similar event. Host's inability to host the Event under this Agreement due to illness is not considered "force majeure".
7. The Host will be invoiced and is responsible for the payment of any undercharge. Special Events Manager will advise Host of any overcharges which will be refunded upon written request from Host.
8. Any Philbrook property or garden landscaping or installations that is broken or damaged during Event will be subject to repair or replacement at the sole cost to the Host and to the satisfaction of Museum.
9. Philbrook reserves the right to collect from Host any Event-related charges and damages assessed after the conclusion of Event. Philbrook will provide Host with a final invoice within 14 days of Event and full payment for any Event-related charges and damages will be due within 30 days of Event. Failure to make payment within 30 days of Event will result in $500 fine per additional day beyond 30 days and civil proceedings to collect amounts owed.
10. Philbrook reserves the right to cancel the Event Contract at any time, with or without notice, if any term, condition, or promise has been or is being violated by Host. In such event, there will be no reimbursement or credit towards any fee or deposit previously paid or any fee still owing, and Philbrook will not be responsible for any consequential damages.

1. A certificate of insurance for $1,000,000 general liability for personal injury and property damage and $500,000 workers compensation and employers' liability naming Philbrook Museum of Art, Inc., 2727 South Rockford Road, Tulsa, OK 74114, as additional insured, is required by Event Third-Party Vendors ("Vendors") and must be provided by Vendors or Host and received by Philbrook at least 30 days prior to the Event start date.
2. Host is responsible for the actions of all Vendors, which may include but are not limited to party planners, entertainers, florists, caterers, musicians, rental equipment providers, etc. Host is responsible for ensuring that all Vendors are aware of Philbrook's historic significance and this Facility Rental Contract and abideance thereto.

Facilities

1. Philbrook provides only the site, portions of which are of historic significance (Villa Philbrook) and/or contain priceless art objects and artifacts (Galleries). Therefore, restrictions apply to their utilization as noted herein. The Host shall provide all other services such as rental tables, chairs, audio-visual, etc. unless specifically outlined in the Event Contract.
2. If contractually agreed upon and paid for at least 30 days prior to Event, Philbrook's galleries may be opened for viewing by Host's guests during Event. The setup of tables, chairs, and any other equipment is prohibited in gallery spaces.

4. Host understands and acknowledges that Museum exhibitions change periodically, and Philbrook cannot guarantee that the rental space as specified in the Event Contract or proximate areas within the Museum will remain unchanged since Host's or Host's agent's initial or any subsequent viewing. Philbrook reserves the right to install works of art of any sort, including large sculptures or installation pieces, in and about Museum spaces. Philbrook will endeavor to timely notify the Host of any major changes to the rental space.
5. A Full Museum Event Rental is defined as the private use of all Museum and garden space. A Full Museum Event Rental precludes use of campus by non-Host Museum visitors, private photography sessions, or Museum tours. However, Philbrook staff and Vendors will continue to always have full Museum access. Full Museum Event Rentals, including Event design, required spaces, and Event activities, must be approved by Museum Director by written correspondence at least 30 days before Event start date.
6. Any Event that is not defined as a Full Museum Event Rental is a Partial Private Event Rental. Partial Private Event Rentals do not preclude non-Host Museum visitors, private photography sessions, and tours from use of the Museum or Gardens during regular museum business hours. Partial Private Event Rentals will not allow Event guest access to Museum and Garden areas not included in the contracted rental space.
7. Philbrook does not provide full Event coordination, including, but not limited to, booking vendors, ceremony cues, décor arrangements, and audio-visual support. Special Events Manager may cancel or delay any Event for weather purposes in their sole discretion. Host must make rain call for Event setup at least 24 hours before any scheduled deliveries. If Host fails to notify Special Events Manager of rain call decision in writing within 24 hours of the first scheduled delivery, Special Events Manager will make the rain call.
10. Rental of Museum for an Event does not imply Philbrook sponsorship or approval of the Event. As a result, any publication or invitation must receive approval from Special Events Manager.
11. Existing furniture re-arranging and/or removal is done only by Philbrook staff with prior approval of Special Events Manager. Host request for furniture re-arranging must be made at least 14 days in advance of Event start. Fees apply.
12. Special Events Manager must be notified 30 days prior to Event if portable sanitation units will be used during Event. If Event plans do not specify use of portable sanitation units, but in the sole determination of Special Event Manager such units are deemed necessary, such units must be secured and paid for by Host. In any case, Special Events Manager will determine the location of all portable sanitation units on Philbrook property.
13. Museum is a smoke free campus. Smoking is not allowed anywhere in the Museum or on the grounds.

Philbrook takes pride in being a good neighbor and adheres to county and city ordinances, and State of Oklahoma statute which subject Philbrook to fines and damages if noise and music from Philbrook interferes with neighbors' private enjoyment of their property. Accordingly, by signing this agreement, Host agrees to (1) abide by all county and city noise ordinances which limit sound to 90 decibels or lower at 15 ft or more from the sound source and (2) defend Philbrook from all noise ordinance violation actions or claims, including attorney fees and costs, resulting from Host's Event.
7. The Host agrees that any noise and music resulting from Event will be sufficiently low volume after 11:00 p.m. that such noise and music will not be audible outside the Philbrook property.
8. Host agrees that it will be liable for the full reimbursement to Philbrook for any fines, penalties, or damages assessed against Philbrook by a court of law based in whole or in part upon Host's use of Philbrook or violation of this agreement. In addition, Host agrees to reimburse Philbrook for the full amount of Philbrook's attorney fees and costs incurred in defending Philbrook in any action that results in a judicial or administrative levy of such fines, penalties, or damages against Philbrook.
9. Host agrees that it will be liable to Philbrook for a fine of $5,000 per 15-minute increment that Event's music and noise continue past Event's end time and noise deadlines outlined in Event Contract.

Philbrook and the Host will collaborate to obtain required permits and Philbrook will act as liaison between Host and city officials.
4. Host and Vendors agree to adhere to all instructions of Philbrook staff. Depending on the complexity of an Event, Philbrook may require additional security or police at its sole discretion and at sole cost of Host.

Vehicles are prohibited from parking or stopping in any driveway, road, entrance/exit, or other non-designated parking spaces including temporary parking for unloading.

Certain events may require off-duty police or paramedic services for an additional fee to be paid by Host.
10. Host agrees to abide by all federal, state, and local laws.

Event Set Up and Deliveries
